

FONDAZIONE
PAOLO E
CAROLINA ZANI

Per l'arte e la cultura

Apulian Krater with Spirals and Red Figures

Apulian krater with spirals, decorated with mythological figures. The red ceramic body is covered in shiny black paint. On it, decoration in white, yellow, and brown inspired by the myth of Castor and Pollux. Noteworthy are the masks in relief on the spirals, depicting female heads with curly hair and bovine horns.

Dati dell'opera

Autore - Greek art

Epoca - 340-320 BC

Area Geografica - Southern Italy (Magna Graecia)

Tecnica - ceramic painted with red figures